What will your communication journey look like in Broadmeadow CNS?

Leading up to the start of the first school term.

Welcome meeting-Updating families in relation to accepting applications to Junior Infants. New Families Meeting-Welcome to all families who have accepted a place at Broadmeadow CNS. Parents to visit school with child/ren to collect welcome pack for new child.

SEN Links-Meetings/Reports collected from parents and meeting held if needed.

First Day- Families welcome to settle children and take 'First Day of School' photograph.

When your child starts school with us

Families are invited to attend an IEP meeting with school staff within 2-3 weeks of starting school.
Review every 6-8 weeks.

Families are invited to a 'Meet the Teacher' Event within the first 5 weeks of starting school.

Families will be invited to a 'Parent/Teacher Meeting' which will last approx. 20 minutes within the first 9 weeks. This is our settling in meeting.

Ongoing-Families will be invited to attend events such as celebration assemblies, welcome ceremony, class assemblies, Winter/Summer concert etc. Ongoing-Families are invited to communicate with the school via the child's daily journal. We endeavour to respond as soon as possible. Urgent issues to be send to school email broadmeadowcns@ddletb.ie

Families will be provided with a short written 'Mid Term Report' providing feedback in relation to progress in February. Families are welcome to respond to this and school will endeavour to support you with your feedback in many forms.

Ongoing Communicationnotes, 'What does my day/week look like?', good news emails, day to day informal communication, emails, phone calls, SEN meetings, weekly emails, social media channels, school website.

Ongoing communication such
as scrap books, notes,
'What my week/day
looks like' informal chats where possible/realistic to support.

Families are invited to attend a 'Subject Awareness' presentation with the class teacher in the second school term. This provides details about how we teach certain subjects.

Families will be provided with a detailed written 'End of Year Report' providing feedback in relation to progress in February. Families are welcome to respond to this and school will endeavour to support you with your feedback in many forms.

We hope that this communication journey highlights how we endeavour to keep our communication with you as families broad and available, whilst also being realistic and supportive to all of our families. We are fully aware that strong communication and partnership provides the best education for each child and we pride ourselves in our partnerships. Please always have the understanding that we will endeavour to support you and listen to any concerns or questions you may have, we simply ask you to ensure that you do this in line with the guidance from the school. Thank You.