WHISTLEBLOWING POLICY

BROADMEADOW COMMUNITY

NATIONAL SCHOOL

2024/2025

Principal: Miss J. Robinson

The Principal of Miss Jennifer Robinson is responsible for the implementation of this Whistleblowing Policy.

Introduction

Whistleblowing is the term used when a worker raises a concern about a relevant wrongdoing such as possible fraud, crime, danger or failure to comply with any legal obligation which came to the worker's attention in connection with the worker's employment. Relevant wrong doings are broadly defined in the relevant Act and include the following:

- Commission of an offence — has happened, is happening, or is likely to happen;
- Failure to comply with any legal obligation (other than one arising under the worker's contract of employment)
- Miscarriage of justice;
- Health and safety of any individual;
- Misuse of public money;
- Gross mismanagement by public body;
- Damage to the environment;
- Destruction or concealment of information relating to any of the above.

It is important to note that a matter is not regarded as a relevant wrongdoing if it is a matter which it is the function of the worker or the worker's employer to detect, investigate or prosecute and does not consist of or involve an act or omission on the part of the employer.

At Broadmeadow CNS whistleblowing may occur when a staff member raises a concern or discloses information which relates to wrongdoing, illegal practices or unethical conduct which has come to his/her attention through work. Our school's whistleblowing policy is intended to encourage and enable staff members to raise concerns within our school rather than overlooking a problem or "blowing the whistle" externally. Under this policy a staff member is entitled to raise concerns or disclose information without fear of penalisation or threat of less favourable treatment, discrimination or disadvantage.

Our Commitment

In accordance with our school vision as a CNS school, we are committed to maintaining an open culture with the highest standards of honesty and accountability where our staff members can report any concerns in confidence.

Who does the policy apply to?

This policy applies to all staff members.

It is important to note that if a staff member has a concern in relation to his/her own employment or personal circumstances in the workplace it should be dealt with by way of the contact with the school Principal in the first instance. If the staff member does not feel the concern has been managed then the relevant Grievance Procedure is followed. In the event of a CNS as like Broadmeadow CNS, the ETB Grievance procedure is used. (i.e. INTO grievance procedure for teachers; IMPACT grievance procedure for relevant staff members and his/her contractual grievance procedure for contracted staff members). Likewise, concerns arising in regard to workplace relationships should generally be dealt with through our Dignity in the Workplace

Policy and Policies for Positive Staff Relations document agreed by INTO and school management bodies.

It is also important to note that this whistleblowing policy does not replace any legal reporting or disclosure requirements. Where statutory reporting requirements and procedures exist, these must be complied with fully.

Policy Aims

The whistleblowing policy is in place within Broadmeadow CNS to;

- To encourage staff to feel confident and safe in raising concerns and disclosing information
- To provide avenues for staff to raise concerns in confidence and receive feedback on any action taken.
- To ensure that staff receive a response where possible to their concerns and information disclosed.
- To reassure staff that they will be protected from penalisation or any threat of penalisation.

What types of concerns can be raised?

A concern or disclosure should relate to a relevant wrongdoing such as possible fraud, crime, danger or failure to comply with any legal obligation which has come to a staff member's attention in connection with his/her employment and about which he/she has a reasonable belief of wrongdoing.

What types of concerns should not be raised under this Procedure?

A personal concern, for example a grievance around a staff member's own contract of employment, would not be regarded as a whistle blowing concern and would be more appropriately processed through the relevant Grievance Procedure found in the Discipline and Grievance Policy.

Safeguards and Penalisation

A worker who makes a disclosure and has a reasonable belief of wrongdoing will not be penalised by the school, even if the concerns or disclosure turn out to be unfounded.

Penalisation includes suspension/dismissal, disciplinary action, demotion, discrimination, threats or other unfavourable treatment arising from raising a concern or making a disclosure on the basis of reasonable belief for doing so. If a staff member believes that he/she is being subjected to penalisation as a result of making a disclosure under this procedure, he/she should inform the Principal or Chairperson of the Board of Management immediately.

Staff members who penalise or retaliate against those who have raised concerns under this policy will be subject to disciplinary action.

Staff members are not expected to prove the truth of an allegation. However, they must have a reasonable belief that there are grounds for their concern. It should be noted that appropriate disciplinary action may be taken against any staff member who is found to have raised a concern or raised a disclosure with malicious intent.

Confidentiality

Broadmeadow CNS is committed to protecting the identity of the staff member raising a concern and ensures that relevant disclosures are treated in confidence. The focus will be on the wrongdoing, if factually proven rather than the person making the disclosure. However, there are circumstances as outlined in the Act, where confidentiality cannot be maintained, particularly in a situation where the staff member is participating in an investigation into the matter being disclosed. Should such a situation arise, the school will make every effort to inform the staff member that his/her identity may be disclosed.

Confidentiality in relation to all concerns, whether they be personal to one staff member or broader must remain at all times. Confidentiality is linked to the profession and teacher council number. This is clearly outlined in rule 104 (INTO).

Raising a Concern Anonymously

A concern may be raised anonymously. However, on a practical level, it may be difficult to investigate such a concern. Broadmeadow CNS encourage staff members to put their names to allegations, with an assurance of confidentiality where possible, in order to facilitate appropriate follow-up. This will make it easier for the school to assess the disclosure and take appropriate action including an investigation if necessary.

Procedure at Broadmeadow CNS

Who should you raise your concern with?

As a first step, appropriate concerns should be raised with the Principal or Deputy Principal in the absence of a Principal. However, should a staff member not wish to use this route, for example given the seriousness and sensitivity of the issues involved, he/she should approach the ETB.

How do I raise a concern?

Concerns may be raised verbally or in writing. Should a staff member raise a concern verbally, a discussion will take place between him/her and the Principal/Deputy Principal/ETB, and the staff member may be advised to put the concern in writing, if it is decided between both parties that there is merit to the concern or disclosure. The written concern/disclosure should give the background and history of the concern, giving relevant details, insofar as is possible, such as dates, sequence of events and description of circumstances. The earlier the concern is expressed, the easier it will be for the school to deal with the matter quickly. Having received the written concern, representatives from the ETB will arrange a meeting to discuss the matter with the staff member on a strictly confidential basis. It will need to be clarified at this point if the concern is appropriate to this procedure or is a matter more appropriate to other procedures, for example the Grievance or Adult Bullying procedures. The staff member can choose whether or not he/she wants to be accompanied by a colleague or a trade union representative. In regard to confidentiality, it is important that there should be an awareness of respecting sensitive school information, which, while unrelated to the disclosure, may be disclosed in the course of a consultation or investigation process.

Dealing with the disclosure

Having met with the staff member in regard to his/her concern and clarified that the matter is in fact appropriate to this procedure, the ETB or its representatives will carry out an initial assessment to examine what actions are needed to be taken to deal with the matter. This may involve simply clarifying certain matters, clearing up misunderstandings or resolving the matter by agreed action without the need for an investigation.

If, on foot of the initial assessment, it is concluded that there are grounds for concern that cannot be dealt with at this point, an investigation will be conducted which will be carried out fairly and objectively. The form and scope of the investigation will depend on the subject matter of the disclosure.

Disclosures may, in the light of the seriousness of the matters raised, be referred immediately to the appropriate authorities. Likewise, if urgent action is required (for example to remove a health and safety hazard), this action will be taken.

It is important that staff members feel assured that a disclosure made under this policy is taken seriously and that the staff member is kept informed of steps being taken in response. In this regard the school undertakes to communicate with the relevant staff member as follows:

- Acknowledge receipt of the disclosure and arrange to meet with the relevant staff member as outlined above.
- Inform the staff member of how it is proposed to investigate the matter and keep him/her informed of actions, where possible, including the outcome of any investigation, and, should it be the case, why no further investigation will take place. However, it is important to note that sometimes the need for confidentiality and legal considerations may prevent the school from giving the staff member specific details of an investigation.
- Inform the staff member of the likely time scales in regard to each of the steps being taken, but in any event, commit to dealing with the matter as quickly as practicable and reasonable.

It is possible that in the course of an investigation the staff member may be asked to clarify certain matters to maximise confidentiality, such a meeting can take place outside of the school and he/she can choose whether or not to be accompanied by the colleague or trade union representative.

Where a concern is raised or a disclosure is made in accordance with this policy, but the allegation is subsequently not upheld by an investigation, no action will be taken against the staff member making the disclosure and the staff member will be protected against any penalisation. It is important to note that if an unfounded allegation is found to have been with malicious intent, then disciplinary action may be taken.

How the matter might be taken further

The aim of this policy is to provide an avenue within Broadmeadow CNS to deal with concerns or disclosures in regard to wrongdoing. The ETB is confident that most issues can be dealt with at school level and strongly encourages staff members to report such concerns internally.

It is acknowledged that there may be circumstances where a staff member wants to make a disclosure externally and the legislation governing disclosures- The Protected Disclosures Act 2014-provides for a number of avenues in this regard. It is important to note, however, that while a staff member needs only have a reasonable belief as to wrongdoing to make a disclosure internally, if he/she is considering an external disclosure, different and potentially more onerous obligations apply depending on to whom the disclosure is made.

Communication, Monitoring and Review

This policy will be communicated to;

- All staff members, parents, students, volunteers and members of the community where needed.
- This policy is subject to regular review, initially reviewed after one year and then it will follow a three-year cycle, unless there is a compelling reason to review it earlier.
